Honoring Carl Montanaro
Senior Vice President, Foodarama-Shoprite Supermarkets

Carl Montanaro was born in Jersey City, New Jersey. Carl graduated from Middletown High School in Middletown, NJ where he has lived continuously since 1948.

With his leadership, dedication and commitment to excellence, Carl Montanaro is a recognized and respected sales and merchandising manager with extensive experience in groceries and operations.

Carl’s career began as a produce clerk with Foodarama Supermarkets in 1962. In a short period of two months, he was promoted to Produce Manager and shortly after that to Grocery Manager and Store Manager. Carl fondly remembers working with the giants of the food industry such as Joe Saker, Jack Saker, Richard Saker, Sidney Cohen, Stanley Kaufelt, Bobby Condon, Jimmy Podonoster and Mel Weiss.

For the last eighteen years, Carl has acted as Senior Vice-President for sales and merchandising for Foodarama ShopRite Supermarkets. In this period of time, with the blessings of the Saker Family and specifically with the active cooperation of Richard Saker, Carl has been the overseer of the Kosher Experience at ShopRite. This unique phenomena of creating an all Kosher store within the ShopRite World Class Store has revolutionized the Kosher food market throughout the State of New Jersey. This concept spread instantly and the Kosher Experience is now a permanent fixture in nine Foodarama ShopRites.

In addition, the concept has been followed by many supermarket chains throughout the United States. Carl is proud to note that Kosher food has become more accessible to the average consumer. And, the price of many products has become more affordable thanks to this phenomenal growth. The Kosher Experience is the culmination of Carl’s experience, expertise and vision.

Carl and his wife Lisa are blessed with five children: Carl, Kathy, Christy, Peter and Analisa and four grandchildren, Amanda, Autumn, Anthony and Elizabeth.
